With the Band

Banding—in gold and brass—is making a comeback, but this time the sleek metal cinches and trims furnishings with glamorous staying power

WRITTEN AND PRODUCED BY CLARA HANEBERG

Arteriors Gold waist detailing accentuates the white-gloss ceramic “Adair” lamp (arteriorshome.com).

Made Goods The “Elis” tulip table with faux-shagreen panels flaunts shiny brass bands around its center and base (madegoods.com).

Currey & Company Pink reverse-painted glass pairs with brass trimming on the “Arden” lingerie chest (curreycodealers.com).

Jayson Home The “Benton” amethyst glass vase with lustrous brass banding is available in three sizes (jaysonhome.com).

Chelsea House Antiqued gold ornaments the “Robbins” wastebasket in black lacquer (chelseahouseinc.com).

Michael Berman for Theodore Alexander The oak “Align” cabinet boasts brass molding (theodorealexander.com).

Amy Somerville Brushed brass embellishes the “Maven” two-seat sofa with velvet button-tufted back cushion (amysomerville.com).
